PRISON PROSECUTIONS.

"The two Ciclos papers," "Nacion Argentina" and "Pueblo", have been prosecuted by the Cacho, or ultra-provincial party. The zone of those parts, treating of Governor Savadran and his administration, was indeed too loud, and we only wonder they were prosecuted for anything at all.

The criminal accusation of President Mitre's organ, by the Provincial Government, is a remarkable event. It means that the National Government is at odds with the Governor Savadran, and that the latter, unable to respond in any other way, exercises vengeance, by dragging the offender before a tribunal whose decisions have been proven to be unjust.

The prosecution is evidently malicious, being laid in the Criminal Court, instead of submitted to a Jury de Impetrito, as is usual in file cases. It is clearly charged in the "Nacion" a Review for the first French packet, all the corruption, bribery, and dissipation of the court are set forth in a series of pointed remarks, the precedents of the Ciclos being passed over with characteristic brevity. In the "Pueblo", the papers are always allowed to attack the Government, without being in any way punished. The prosecution is evidently malicious, being laid in the Criminal Court, instead of submitted to a Jury de Impetrito, as is usual in file cases.

On Monday night three men entered a saloon at Ciclos Equines, and after a few minutes' conversation, they proceeded to break the place. The police, who were on duty, failed to prevent the ruffians, even as men seized the third his himself in a ditch in the call of the police. We have an unpropitious date for the trial, although Irishmen are sometimes postively "leg" by trotters. At the trial, the defendant's name was not mentioned. The trial, the defendant's name was not mentioned. The trial, the defendant's name was not mentioned.

Mr. Patrick Wallace, of Chascomus, has a serious complaint against the "Nacion". He took out his "patente" last year, for a two-headed horse. On coming into town yesterday, his son was seized at the Plaza Mitre, and taken to the Police. A fine of $30.00, was then levied, but Mr. Wallace was obliged to pay, evading being at liberty. Of course, it seems to be a case of "pay to get out."

At a quarter-past eleven, a Frenchman was seized walking in the Calle Comercio, near Florida and Mayo, and taken to the Police. He was found to be a Frenchman, and was taken to the Police. He was found to be a Frenchman, and was taken to the Police.

On proceeding to assist the unfortunate Frenchman, it was found that he was a living man, and that he was not dead. He was found to be a living man, and that he was not dead. He was found to be a living man, and that he was not dead.

The murder in Calle Parque has caused a great sensation throughout town. The particulars will be found in another column. It is a case of a man being killed by a woman, and the woman being killed by a man.

Last night the Club Comercio received the arrival of London of a lady, professor of music and singing, who was accompanied by a man. The lady was a Frenchman, and the man was a Frenchman.

We have received a sample of Dublin's Irish whiskey, on sale at Messrs. J. & C. The whiskey is of a fine quality, and is well known throughout the country.

Regarding the Gas Company, we learn that the books of the establishment are in a state of confusion. The company is in a state of confusion, and the books are in a state of confusion.

Last Monday the Gase Police of the Province, in company with several other officers, went to the office of the Governor to inquire into the case. The Governor was not at home, and the officers were not allowed to enter.

LATIN FROM MONTVIDEO.
To the Editors of the "Standard,"
Gentlemen,

Since I last wrote to you, nothing of any consequence has happened. Of course, nothing has happened. Of course, nothing has happened. Of course, nothing has happened.
